

Music Business Seminar on November 13th

The Music Business Seminar series hosts two entertainment lawyers from Nashville on Friday, November 13th at 3:30pm in the Wilson Concert Hall. The attorneys, Page Kelley and Robert Baker, are both alumni of Washington & Lee and will discuss their involvement in the music industry. Learn more about the attorneys at their website:

<http://www.rowlawyers.com>

Members of the faculty will combine with the two featured speakers in a panel as part of the seminar to discuss trends in the music industry. There will be plenty of Q&A as well as free give-aways!

Baker and Kelley are to be involved in two small conferences with interested students from the Undergraduate and Law Schools on the day of the seminar, Friday November 13th. The schedule is:

10:00 - 11:30am Law School Career Planning Office

12:30 - 2:00pm Undergraduate Office of Career Services

3:30 - 5:00pm Music Business Seminar in Wilson Concert Hall

Contact the Career Services Office for your school to get involved!